Setup accounts with AirBnB, Expedia, American Air Lines and Iberia Airlines

When researching things to do and flights use Expedia. Make sure to be signed in, you will earn points if you book events.

Only book AA flights directly with AA. Make sure to put your Passport, DL, full name as shown in passport on your Aadvantage account.

For AirBnB, always set filters to include number of people and make sure to use "Entire Home/Apt"

You should have researched with Expedia areas of town and prices of hotels that you want to be in. Always use AirBnB for places to stay.

When booking rewards travel with AA make sure to NOT select partners airlines or your cost will be higher. Only AA flights.

Download and setup the App that lets you getting thru customs coming back into USA

Look over the program and decide what time frame you want to go.

This is great fun helping Spaniards with their conversational English.

Meeting 12-15 Spaniards and another 12 or more English speakers.

Make contacts to maybe show you around Madrid or other parts of the world.

A week to make good international friends.

Setup your AirBnB account as well.

If you do not already have an account with AirBnb, I would appreciate it if you use this link.

Then when you complete your first reservation, it will give me points.

Once you are a member, you will have a code as well and can help others sign up.

You give them your code and you can get points as well.
